

Hyperon-Nucleon Interaction from Lattice QCD

Saturday, 26 April 2025 14:25 (20 minutes)

Lattice QCD provides a foundational technique for investigating the interaction between hadrons. We study proton-hyperon scattering using lattice QCD within Luscher's finite volume method and HALQCD method. This calculation provides some useful information on the nature of the interaction between proton and hyperon.

Primary author: LIU, Hang

Presenter: LIU, Hang

Session Classification: 分会场二