

We are pleased to announce that the BESIII Collaboration Meeting in Summer of 2025 will be hosted by North China Electric Power University in Beijing, from July 7th to July 11th, 2025.

Online registration is now available with a submission deadline of 23:59 (UTC+8) on June 29, 2025. Early registration is strongly recommended through the official portal: <https://indico.ihep.ac.cn/event/25616/>. On-site registration and payment processing will be available at 09:00 on July 6, 2025, in the conference venue lobby. The registration desk will remain operational throughout the event.

On-site registration fees are structured as follows:

- Regular attendees (faculty staff/postdoctoral researchers): CNY 1,800
- Student participants: CNY 1,500

The fee includes: venue rental & conference facilities, meeting materials package, catering services, coffee breaks with refreshments, shuttle services, etc.

Accommodation costs are excluded from the registration fee and require separate payment. All payments at the registration desk must be settled in CNY. We accept major credit cards (Visa/Mastercard/UnionPay) and bank transfers.

This conference will adopt a hybrid format, accommodating both on-site and virtual participation. Online attendees may access the event through Zoom; the meeting link will be distributed via email prior to the conference. For comprehensive program details and technical requirements, please consult the official Indico platform at <https://indico.ihep.ac.cn/event/25616/>.

For inquiries or technical support, please contact the organizing committee.
